AS A GENERAL GUIDE TO WHICH VISA YOU SHOULD APPLY FOR PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING WITH PARTICULAR REFERENCE TO THE DISTINCTION BETWEEN THE VARIOUS
DURATIONS OF MULTIPLE VISAS

Direct Airside Transit

Issued where a passenger transits the U.K. without passing through Immigration, (i.e. changing planes without leaving the terminal).

Visitor In Transit (6 months –Multiple Entry)

Issued where a passenger transits the U.K. and passes through Immigration, (valid for a transit of up to 48 hours) passengers wishing to visit family or friends should apply for a standard visitor visa.

Standard Visa (6 months-Multiple Entry)

The most commonly issued visitor visa. Students going to study in the U.K. will pay the standard visa fee regardless of their length of stay. This visa is also required for passengers who need to pass through Immigration and visit family or friends while in transit.

1 Year Multiple Entry

Only issued to visitors who can show a need for frequent travel to the U.K. and who have had previous successful visa applications at this post. Primarily used for business visitors. (A letter from the applicant's employer confirming the need to visit the U.K. on a frequent and regular basis will be required). Not issued for general travel/vacation.

2 Year Multiple Entry

As for the 1 year visa, but issued only with a prior history of frequent travel to the U.K. and a previous successful application for a 1 year visa. Not issued for general travel/vacation.

5 and 10 Year Multiple Entry

As for the 2 year visa, but issued infrequently. Not issued for general travel/vacation.

Visa nationals

Visa nationals are those who need a visa for every entry to the United Kingdom (UK), though some may be able to “Transit Without Visa”. Those who need visas for transit as well are listed below under Direct Airside transit. Read our Transit - visa application guide for more information.

* Since 1 July 2009, nationals of South Africa, Lesotho and Swaziland need a visa to enter or transit through the UK.

 Since 18 May 2009:

Nationals of Bolivia - need a visa to enter or transit through the UK.

Nationals of Venezuela - Holders of the new Venezuelan biometric, machine readable passports issued from 2007 will no longer require a visa to enter the UK for a visit lasting no more than 6 months, unless the category they are entering under requires a mandatory visa under the Immigration rules.

Venezuelan nationals holding passports issued before 2007 which are not biometric, machine readable will still need a visa to enter the UK no matter which category of entry clearance they are apply for.

 Since 3 March 2009, nationals of Jamaica need a visa to enter or transit through the UK.

Direct Airside Transit Visa (DATV) nationals

In addition to needing a visa to enter the United Kingdom, nationals of the following countries also need a visa to transit through the UK, known as Direct Airside Transit Visa (DATV). See our Transit - visa application guide for more information.

* Since 1 July 2009, nationals of South Africa need a visa to enter or transit through the UK.

 Since 18 May 2009, nationals of Bolivia and Venezuela need a visa to enter or transit through the UK. Venezuelan nationals holding valid biometric passports containing an electronic chip issued since 2007 will be exempt from the visa requirement.

 Since 1 July 2009, nationals of Lesotho and Swaziland need a visa to enter or transit through the UK.

* From 14 July 2011, nationals of Yemen need a visa to transit through the UK.

Passengers exempt from the DATV requirement

Holders of certain documents are, regardless of nationality, exempt from the requirement to hold a Direct Airside Transit Visa when transiting the UK.

A transit passenger is not required to hold a transit visa if he holds, or a person with whom he arrives in the United Kingdom holds on his behalf:

1. a valid visa for entry to Australia, Canada, New Zealand or the United States of America and a valid airline ticket for travel via the United Kingdom as part of a journey from another country or territory to the country for which the visa is held;
2. a valid visa for entry to Australia, Canada, New Zealand or the United States of America and a valid airline ticket for travel via the United Kingdom as part of a journey from the country for which the visa is held to another country or territory;
3. a valid airline ticket for travel via the United Kingdom as part of a journey from Australia, Canada, New Zealand or the United States of America to another country or territory, provided that the transit passenger does not seek to transit the United Kingdom on a date more than six months from the date on which they last entered Australia, Canada, New Zealand or the United States of America with a valid visa for entry to that country;
4. a valid USA I-551 Permanent Resident Card issued on or after 21st April 1998;
5. a valid Canadian Permanent Resident Card issued on or after 28th June 2002;
6. a valid common format Category D visa for entry to an EEA State;
7. a valid common format residence permit issued by an EEA State pursuant to Council Regulation (EC) No. 1030/2002;
8. a diplomatic or service passport issued by the People's Republic of China; or
9. a diplomatic or official passport issued by India; or
10. a diplomatic or official passport issued by Vietnam.

Notes:

1. A valid U.S. immigrant visa packet (form 155A/155B) is a valid visa for DATV exemption purposes.
2. An expired I-551 Permanent Resident Card issued on or after 21 April 1998 when accompanied by an I-797 letter issued by the Bureau of Citizenship authorising its extension, exempts the holder from the DATV requirement.
3. Holding either an I-512 Parole letter or an I-797C (Notice of Action) instead of a valid U.S. visa; or a Transportation Letter instead of a valid U.S. Permanent Residence Card issued on or after 21 April 1998; or a U.S Visa Foil endorsed, "NOT A VISA. FOIL PREPARED AT DHS REQUEST" does NOT qualify for exemption from the DAT visa requirement.
4. Holding a valid travel document with a U.S. ADIT stamp worded – “Processed for I-551. TEMPORARY EVIDENCE OF LAWFUL ADMISSION FOR PERMANENT RESIDENCE VALID UNTIL.... EMPLOYMENT AUTHORIZED” does NOT qualify for exemption from the DAT visa requirement.
5. Whether holders of non-national (including refugee travel documents) require a DATV depends on their nationality and whether they qualify for one of the exemptions listed above. So, for instance, the holder of a non-national travel document (for example, a refugee travel document) who is a national or a citizen of one of the countries listed on the DATV list (for example, Afghanistan) will require a direct airside transit visa if they are travelling to the UK to transit on to a third country.

Transiting to the Republic of Ireland

Passengers must pass through immigration control in order to take a flight to Ireland. Visa nationals (and passengers qualifying for DATV exemption above) may Transit without Visa providing they fulfil the TWOV conditions and are properly documented for entry into Ireland.

DATV nationals transiting to Ireland must obtain a visit visa - not a Visitor in Transit visa which is only for transit to a destination outside the Common Travel Area (Rules HC395 paragraph 47 refers).

All visa nationals wishing to transit the UK but spend longer doing so than the 24 hours permitted under the TWOV concession must obtain a visitor in transit visa for stays up to 48 hours or a visit visa.

United Kingdom Introduces Biometric Data Collection for All Visa Applicants

UK Visas, 11/26/2007

Effective December 3, 2007, the British government will introduce biometric data collection (10-finger scans and a digital photograph) as part of a world-wide biometric identification process, designed to protect an individual's identity, facilitate future entry to the UK, combat visa fraud and abuse of the UK's immigration and asylum systems.

From December 3, 2007, all visa applicants, irrespective of nationality, will be required to provide their biometric data when they apply for a visa for the United Kingdom.

To enable visa applicants to do this UKvisas have established an arrangement whereby the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) collect the biometric data of applicants for UK visas from their network of 129 Application Support Centers (ASCs). This arrangement with the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) will provide wide coverage of biometric collection points in the USA.

As of December 3, all UK visa applicants will need to schedule an online appointment to visit one of 129 USCIS Application Support Centers (ASCs) where they will be required to provide their fingerscans and a digital photograph in support of their application.

Unless otherwise advised, all visa applicants must provide their biometric data. The application cannot be processed if an applicant refuses, or cannot provide, acceptable biometric data.

Fingerscans will be collected from each applicant by using an electronic scanner. No ink, liquid or chemical will be used. A digital photograph will be taken at the same time and the whole biometric capture procedure should take no more than 10 minutes to complete.

Note:

All applicants should ensure that their fingertips are free from any forms of decoration (henna, for example), abrasions or other markings, and that any facial cuts and bruises have healed or disappeared prior to providing their biometric data as these may affect their ability to provide acceptable fingerscans and photographs. Digital photographs cannot be taken with applicants wearing head coverings that hide the face, dark glasses, face or neck coverings.

For further information about the application process, visit www.britainusa.com or call the WorldBridge user pay phone service at 1-900-656-5000 ($3.00 per minute) or 212-796-5773 ($12 per call, regardless of length).
