Visas and immigration

This section contains information about immigration categories for non-European nationals. It describes the eligibility requirements for each category, and explains how you can make an application inside or outside the UK.

If you are a national of a country in the European Economic Area (EEA) or Switzerland, you should read the European nationals section.

If you do not know whether you need a visa to come to the UK, or which immigration category is most suitable for you, our Do you need a visa? questionnaire will help you find the answer.

Visiting the UK

Information for tourists and others who want to come to the UK for a short stay.

Studying in the UK

Find out how you can be a student at one of the UK's academic institutions

Working in the UK

Full details of all our immigration categories for migrants who want to work or do business here.

Partners and families

Find out how dependants of British citizens, people settled here and temporary migrants can join and remain with their family members in the UK.

Diplomats, government officials and members of governments

Information for diplomats, government officials and members of governments who want to travel to or through the UK.

While you are in the UK

Your rights and responsibilities while you are here, plus information and advice on topics such as travelling abroad and transferring your visa to a new passport.

Settling in the UK

When you have been in the UK as a migrant for some time, you might be able to settle here permanently.
